Update:

Hey everyone, Zefkiel here. Many of you might be wondering why there has been a lot of updates recently (it's not like I'm lazy or anything lol). I've recently picked up YaoGuai MingDan (one of our other series that you all should definitely check out), and I was planning on doing them both. So in the mean time I will update both series bi-weekly. This might change in a month when summer starts and I have less things to do, but we'll see what happens then. Anyways, thank you for all the support.

WHY ARE WE WASTING

TALKING?
